

PIONEER QUEEN
Dottie Quimby

87 young and the pride of the Auburn Eagles. Raised thousands of dollars for cancer research. Cooks, serves and nurtures anyone in need. Stays young by dancing and volunteering. Queen Dottie is a charming gal with a big warm heart. We are so blessed to have her as our 2009 Pioneer Queen!

GRAND MARSHAL
Don Stevenson

"The Pacin' Parson" has walked mile after mile to benefit humankind. Don has walked to raise money to battle diseases such as Alzheimer's, multiple sclerosis, Huntington's, spina bifida and cancer. Don has represented Auburn all across the nation which makes him the perfect choice for The Grand Marshal to lead the Auburn Good Ol' Days Parade.

PIONEER SPIRIT
Don Rottle

Rottle's Clothing and Shoes has remained an icon in the City of Auburn. Don and his son's, Jim and John, have kept the legacy alive for almost seventy years. Don's dedication to this community and the downtown corridor has kept their business strong and thriving. His pioneering spirit, quiet kindness and good business sense has helped Downtown Auburn keep a ray of sunshine alive.
